

GEORGIA TIRE DEALERS & RETREADERS ASSOCIATION

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the GTDRA Hall of Fame is to honor those individuals who have played a significant role in the growth and development of the Georgia Tire dealers Association and the Tire Industry. Membership in the Hall of Fame is to recognize and honor those individuals who have achieved success within the industry, as well as in public service for the community at large where they work and live. Eligible nominees must be from GTDRA membership.

QUALIFICATIONS:

To qualify for induction, the nominee must have been a regular, associate or supplier member of the GTDRA in good standings for the period of contribution. Nominees should be outstanding contributors to the Tire Industry through personal achievement, leadership and by example.

RULES:

The annual quota for inductees will be two per year.

To be considered, candidates must have served within the Tire Industry and GTDRA for a minimum overall length of time totaling five years.

The Hall of Fame Committee will choose from the eligible applications. The inductees will be announced and honored at the annual meeting every year.
